to the echo.

Judge Gabriel L, Smith, formerly law partner of Governor Hill, was made chairman of the meeting. He spoke at length on the platform of the party and the advantages to the workingmen of the protective tariff and the maintenance of an henest dollar. In the course of his remarks he said:

"We are not only going to make J. Sloat Fassett the Executive at the State capitol, but we propose to make Mrs. Fassett mistress of the Capitol." After music by the Elmira Glee Club, Senator Fassett was introduced. He was cheered again and again, and when the cheers subsided, he said:

My friends: As I take it that you are here as my friends

My friends: As I take it that you are here as my friends you will hardly expect anything so formal from me to-night as a speech. I do not feel comfortable in hanight as a speech. I do not feel comorance in arranging my friends, for I believe they are with me and seed up conversion. (Cheers.) I suppose it would be improper to regard this as a political eccasion. I find more pleasure and take more pride in regarding it as an expression of neighborly good-will and kindly greeting. (Cheors.) I never could make a speech in Elmira; I sever have. But when riding down from the station to-night I saw more people than I supposed lived in the city. And it all seemed so strange under the of the red lights and the bursting of rockets. When saw so many kindly countenances I knew that I should fail in my duty if I did not take the time to try to tell w deeply I appreciate this expression of affection where sod will. I knew how I leved Eimbra all these exter. I knew every foot of these beautiful green hills; that he hiding-places for boys when we used to that the hiding-places for boys when we used to that t m-lefts where we used to hide from each other and I knew every hole in the sidewalks in so familiar and homelike here that it seemed to be unand greet you as neighbors. I did not expect such an outpouring. I did not expect such a warm-hearted, unpouring. I did not expecting. It has done me good.
ited and generous greeting. It has done me good.
has hit me in the heart. (Cheers.) I have has loved to come back to Elmira. The eve of this town has grown into every fibre of my being. I have none but happy recollections connected with the scenes in Eimina. I want to make one little promise, one little apology to you here as my friends and neighbors. This is in confidence and not for publication. I have tried to so order my life, from my youth up, that I may deserve your confidence and your respect and if you will permit me shall continue always to do so. But this is something more than a social gathering. It significance from other facts than your interest in me personally. You are here, both ladies and gentiemen, as citizens of a great State, the greatest State in the Union. Many of you, most of you, are interested in the weal and cood of all that affects the interests of one of the great political parties in the State and in the Nation. That party, by its chosen representatives in Rochester, has placed upon me a great and sacred trust. It has commanded me to go upon a great and sacred trust. It has commanded me to go upon a great mission. It has asked me to tell to the people of Elimira, and the people of this county, and the people of this state something about the Republican party, what it has done, and something about the Elimocratic party and what (Cheers.) I cannot be recreant to that rust. Right here and now, without wounding sensibilithout creating irritation, in a lim-tee, at least, to set the key-note apaign and to tell you how I purpose doing my shere of the work. I hope this is to be a campaign of illumination. I want to turn on the light. I want you ch the records; I want you to Fefresh yo ies; I want you to investigate and pursue; I want you to lay aside prejudice and passion. I have one purpose and that is that this shall be absolutely, purely a campaign of education and organizapersonal detraction, no personal abuse, no light of faise issues, no toleration of personal detractions name or nature whatever. wenty-one years and upward was a practical politician. cal American politician. After Mr. Fassett closed, other speakers were introduced and spoke enthusiastically of the prospects of the Republicans, and predicted victory spirit of confidence was manifested. nder the banner of a united party. The Opera House was not large enough to hold more than one-half of the outpouring of people, and an overflow meeting was held on the outside. It was addressed by Colonel Baxter and others, the speakers being reciferously observed.

by Colonel Baxter and others, the speakers being vociferously cheered.

Mr. Fassett went to his home in West Church-st. to-night after the reception to him was over, to find it practically uninhabitable. His furniture and household goods are all packed up ready to be shipped to New-York to the apartments which Mr. Fassett engaged last week. Everything was ready for him to move his goods to New-York, for when he took the appointment of Collector he intended to hold to it as long as the President wanted him to. His children were staying with his father, whose home adjoins that of Mr. Fassett, and he took his wife there. They will stay in this house until his own home is made habitable. Mr. Fassett will go to New-York to-morrow morning, where he will close up his affairs as Collector of the Port and release his bondsmen just as soon as the President accepts his resignation.

WHO WILL BE COLLECTOR OF THE PORT? WHO WILL SUCCEED MR. FASSETT.

Satisfaction beamed on the face of every Republican the Custom House yest-rday over the worlt of the Rochester convention. There was only one verdict uttered—"Well done." In Mr. Fassett's short erm as Collector he has made himself a favorite with every one, and all were rejoiced to know of the high honor bestowed upon him by the Republican party. Every and asked how the ticket was being received, and how big Fassett's majority would be. No one doubted for made Collector !"

practically mnanimous that a New-York City man should by the Government, whether paper or coin, should be named. With a ticket made up entirely outside of the city and with a chairman of the State Committee from the interior of the State it was thought that New-York City was entitled to the Collectorship. The claims of Senator Francis Hendricks, of Syracuse, were thoroughly canvassed, and while it was admitted that many good reasons existed for his appointment, the impression prevailed that the claims of New-York City were too strong to be disregarded. Among New-Yorkers Sur veyor Lyon was most prominently named as a possible It was urged in his behalf that be was airendy familiar with the duties of the office, and to have a big meeting there." would be able to take up the work and carry it on without going through an educational process.

Another New-York name mentioned was that of ex-Police Justice Jacob M. Patterson, who was also talked of for the place when Mr. Fassett was ap-

The good taste shown by Mr. Fassett in resigning Collectorship at once upon receiving the nomina-

THE DEMOCRATS ANXIOUS ALREADY.

PRIGHTENED BY THE UNANIMITY AND ENTHUSI-ASM OF THE REPUBLICANS-WILL FLOWER BE "TURNED DOWN?"

It did not need an expert in politics to observe yesterday that the nomination of J. Siont Fassett for Governor, and of the excellent men associated with him on the Republican ticket, has already made the Democratic leaders decidedly uneasy. Several of them frankly admitted that they were totally unprepared for the wenderful exhibition of harmony presented, and the unusual enthusiasm with which the ticket has been received by all classes of Republicans. squence is that there is a movement on foot for a readjustment of the Democratic line of battle.

Police Commissioner John R. Voorhis, the leader of the New-York Democracy, said last evening that already Mr. Fassett's nomination showed such strength that it at it. He knows all the weak points in the Democratic would be necessary for the Democrats to change their tactics and put up a man who would be able to cope with him. What was needed, Mr. Voorhis sald, was a young man of Fassett's dash and ability, who would something of a match for him on the stump and the canvass. Mr. Voorhis did not say it in so many words, but it was plainly to be inferred that his opinion was that Roswell P. Flower did not fill hill and would have to be "turned down." The Commissioner added that the New-York Democracy would go to Saratoga prepared to present the name of a young man who would enlist the enthusiasm of the Democracy in some such measure as the selection of Mr. Fassett had aroused the Republicans to hope and activity. Mr. Voorbis declined to name his candi-Rumor connected the name of Colonel Lamont and also that of ex-Secretary Whitney with Mr. Voorhis's outgivings. Some politicians thought that a boom was in course of preparation for Judge Alton B. Parker, of Albany.

came people want low prices, and others style. can be suited at Flint's Furniture stores, 104, 100.

THE ENTHUSIASM GROWING.

UNIVERSAL PRAISE FOR THE TICKET.

NEW-YORK CITY REPUBLICANS CONFIDENT OF

SUCCESS-TRIBUTES FROM DEMOCRATS. Most of the New-York delegates to the Rechester Convention have returned. the hotels and at the clubs last evening, but wherever they went in public places they were surrounded by party friends who eagerly finquired concerning the details and results of the convention. Everywhere among Republicans there was a feeling satisfaction over the spontaneous action of the delegates in choosing Passett and Vrooman to be the standard-bearers in the coming campaign. It was no fictitious or perfunctory expression of opinion as to the result that was given. Every Republican who was seen firmly believed that at no time for years had the Republican party a better chance for the result that was success in this State. Growing enthusiasm, good-nature and confidence were apparent everywhere. Senator Hiscock, who came from Rochester with vention: "I have attended a good many political conventions in my life, but never have I attended one that has been made for years. I honestly believe that there is no discontent. unsuccessful candidate went other these days where we used to play marbles. I knew the their homes in good-humor. I am sure of that. It was reported that the friends of Mr. Becker used to whip in common with myself. Everything was nable for me to do otherwise than simply meet you can state that the best of feeling exists on their part this fall. We have a good pletform and a ticket made up of young men who are brilliant and popular."

Ex-senator Platt was one of those who return

early from the Rochester convention. All day long his friends called on him, and at the Fifth Avenue Hotel last night he was the centre of interest. His friends said that Mr. Platt was the most surprised man in the convention over the sudden rise of the overwhelming sentiment for Mr. Fassett. He had earnestly and sincerely supported Mr. White for the nomination, and a day or two of the convention felt assured that the ex-president of Cornell Univerwould be nominated. On Friday or Saturday of last week the name of Fassett had been brought forward. and a demand was made by the friends of the popular young man that he should be the candidate of the Republican party for Governor. Mr. Platt still remained firm, so his friends say, in his allegiance to the cause of Mr. White, but on his arrival at Rochester his keen political insight finally compelled him to surrender in favor of Fassett. It is said that Mr. White most heartly indorses the ticket and will take an active part in the campaign.

PLEASED WITH THE SILVER PLANK. Wall Street men are usually shy in discussing political subjects, and some persons prominent in financial matters are slow to lend the support of their names to opinions which they freely There were many expressions of approval of the Republican ticket and platform by brokers most striking feature of comment around the Stock Exchange was the recognition of the importance of the clear declaration by the Rochester convention upon the silver question. Large credit has been given for the recent improvement in the security parkets to the utterances of President Harrison and to the principles of sound finance. The solid position taken by the Republicans of New-York State on financial question induced favorable comment. Those any name of material politician. I believe I once said in Cooper financial question induced favorable comment. Those practical politician. I believe I once said in Cooper financial question induced favorable comment. Those practical politician. I believe I once said in Cooper financial question induced favorable comment. Those practical politicism is a comment of the cooper financial question induced favorable comment. business men would testify as they have done in the and disposition as respects honest financial prinwas conceded on all sides, and among Republicans a

> S. V. White said: "I think I can put my ideas succinctly. The Republican party in the platform and the nominees gives the State an opportunity for an honest government, upon honest principles, that I shall be much surprised if the people reject next November at the polls. I believe it means a Republican victory."

John G. Moore, of Moore & Schley, said: "It's a ticket and a platform that will win. The man who leads the ticket is good, and so are the principles back of him. The silver plank in the platform is strong, Henry W. Cannon, president of the Chase National tenday at Rochester deserves the support of every Republican in this city, and the nominees, without exception, are eminently fitted for their places The nomination of J. Sloat Fassett should cement to gether all the factions of our party. He is an ideal eandidate-a Chevaller Bayard, 'without fear and with-In the prime of life. His services to this State are known to all. He lays aside the Collectorship and SPECULATION AT THE CUSTOM HOUSE AS TO takes up the fight for Governor in a most manly and unselfish way, which is in strong contrast to the leaders of the Democratic party. He has not only a fine intellect, but he is situated so that he can devote his time to the best interests of our State. He has the red blood of friendship and good-comradeship in his veins, which makes him akin to us all. The plank in the platform which insists upon an honest dollar for the people cannot fall to commend itself to all reporter who entered the building was pounced upon thinking men, not only in this State but throughout a mement that the Collector would be the next Gov. and silver at a parity capnot be continued unless ernor. The next question asked was, "Who will be the Republican party's principles prevail, and the convention did right in indorsing the utterances of Among the heads of departments the opinion was President Harrison, to wit: that every dellar issued

PRAISE FROM WELL-KNOWN REPUBLICANS.

This is what Postmaster Cornelius Van Cott said: "I think it is a fine ticket. I was for Mr. Fussett when ex-Senator Warner Miller was nomitated. Collector Fassett is as good a man as any who could be named. He is honest and conscientious, and has been a successful public official. We are going to open the campaign next week, and have already rented Hardman Hall for next Thursday night. We are going

Assistant United States Attorney John O. Mott said The nominations are the best that could have been made. I know Collector Fassett and General Hedges personally, and the rest by reputation. They will make a fine showing Surveyor George W. Lyon sald: "The ticket couldn't have been beiter. All we have to do is to present a solid front and make a good fight, and we shall surely tion for Governor was much commented upon and win. The country part of the state will be on fire contrasted with the "Pooh-Bah" propensities displayed by Semator-Governor Hill.

Syracuse, Sept. 10 (Special).—Friends of Senator Francis Hendricks, who has been mentioned as the probable successor of J. Sloat Fassett, as Collector of the Poor of New-York, said to-day that the Senator
the Poor of New-York, said to-day that the Senator would not accept the place. Senator Hendricks could not be found this evening > nominations exceedingly. There is no reason why Ti believe that he will be. The ticket is well balanced and has all the elements of success."

Acting Collector Couch said: "I think the ticket a popular one and one that will prove strong. Every body seems thoroughly satisfied with it."

William L. Bostwick, cashier of the Custom House said: "It is a good ticket and will win. It has in it all the elements of perfect harmony. I was for Andrew D. White before the convention, but the nomination of Fassett was the will of the people. It was a spontaneous movement, and after it got started could no more be stopped by the leaders than a Western tornado could with a feather. Mr. Fassett is an aggressive, level-headed, well-equipped man. Whenever he sees a Democratic head he will strike armor, and will be the death of 'Hillism' in this State." Deputy Collector Gano, who is from Tompkins County, said: "I was one of the first to advocate in my paper the nomination of Mr. White, but I am thoroughly satisfied with the convention's work. Fassett will be a strong candidate. Mr. Vroeman Mr. Vroeman, too. is well known and popular. The whole ticket is good and will known and popular. The whole ticket is good and will win."

Deputy Collector J. W. Berryman declared that the ticket was a winning one. He added: "The convention did well in nominating Collector Fassett. He is a young man, popular and of great ability, and will win the support of a majority of the "oters of the State." General James R. O'Berrne, Acting Superintendent of Immigration, said that he thought the ticket a splendid one. It was exactly after his own heart, an agressive one. The very test men had been put on it, and he was sure it would win.

DEMOCRATS SAY IT IS A STRONG TICKET. The prevailing scattment about the City Hall yes-terday was that the Republican State ticket was a particularly strong one and would require the best efforts of the Democracy to defeat it. Nobody attempted to sett for Governor was going to promote narmony in the Republican ranis, and that he would make a splendid canvass of the State Mayor Grant said that in Mr. Fassett the Republicans had put forward one of their ablest and best men. It would prove a popular nomination undoubtedly, the Mayor thought, "but," he added facetlously, "I think he would make a better candidate for Illinois than the State of New-York. He would have an overwhelming majority in Chicago." Controller Myers said: "Mr. Passett is a brilliant woung man, with an unstained record. If elected I have no doubt he would make a good Governor. But I don't look for a Republican victory this year. I think the Democrats will win by about 35,000 majority."

think the Democrate will will be distributed by the carellent personal qualities of Mr. Fassett and his associates on the Bepublican State ticket, said that he thought that it had not the shoet of a show. Mr. Gilroy claimed a big majority for Hill's "unknown."

Corporation Counsel Clark spoke in high terms of Mr. Fassett as a frank shie, honorable man, whose pleasing personal characteristics had drawn around him a host of friends. "I don't believe that a Republican can be elected." Mr. Clark added, "but if one is to be. I should be glad to see Mr. Fassett in the Governor's chair."

Superintendent Brady, of the Bureau of Buildings, can be elected. Mr. Oath and the covernor's chair."

Superintendent Brady, of the Bureau of Buildings, said: "I have a high personal regard for Mr. Passett. When his investigating committee was at work here he kept me before him all one day, and was very inquisitive about the workings of my department, but when he came to make his report he recommended that my salary should be increased. Naturally, I have an excellent opinion of his discrimination.

Police Commissioner McClave had so far recovered from his recent illness as to be able to go to his office at Police Headquarters yesterday and arrange for a meeting of the Police Board to-day. He said: "The Republican ticket is excellent from top to bottom, and should receive the endustants support of every member of the party in the State. Tr. Passett is a strong candidate, and will make a spiendid fight. He will make specifics throughout the State in the campaign, I understand, and wherever he goes he is sure to arouse enthusiasm and increase his popularity. He is sure to be the next Governor if the Republicans do their duty on election day."

ONLY WORDS OF COMMENDATION IN BROOKLYN.

ONLY WORDS OF COMMENDATION IN BROOKLYN. Nothing save commendation for the State ticke nominated at Rochester was heard among the Republicans of Brooklyn yesterday. The strength and syn metry of it were the subject of favorable comment, and metry of it were the subject of favorable comment, and the selection of one of the best-known men in the city, ex-Senator Eugene F. O'Connor, as candidate for Secretary of State, was especially praised.
Naval Officer Theodore B. Willis said: "The ticket is an excellent one-strong in every particular. With Fassett at the head, supported by such men as Vrooman and O'Connor, the Republicans are out to win. I believe we will sweep the Stafe. Kings County should be greatly pleased to have as its representative on the ticket that loyal Republican and strong candidate, Eugene F. O'Connor."

be greatly pleased to have as its replaced that loyal Republican and strong candidate, Eugene F. O'Connor."

Ex-Fire Marshal A. B. Thorn said: "It is a splendid ticket, and it looks to me as if it was put together to win. Fassett will poll a greet wore. He is the sort of man to suit all sorts of Republicans. I believe he will be elected in November."

W. H. N. Cadmus, of the Elghth Ward, said: "The ticket is headed by one of the ablest young men the Republican party has had in its ranks in many years, and one whose energy and ability, supplemented by such men as John W. Vrooman and Eugene F. O'Connor, ought to wrest the covernment of the State from Democratic hands. I namer Mr. O'Connor greatly, and he would have been my choice as candidate for Mayor of Brooklyn. I believe that the ticket will win by a large majority."

Silas B. Dutcher said: "The convention has done well and the Democratic can't beat the ticket, whether they nominate Chapin, Flower or Hill himself. The Republicans were never so united, harmonious and happy." I believen and it. "I think the ticket is a hanny."

Herman Liebmann said: "I think the ticket is a strong one, especially in the naming of ex-Senator O'Connor for Secretary of State. Mr. Fassett has an honorable record and he will be ably seconded by Mr. Chapin said : "I have known Mr. Fassett fo eight years. Personally he is an agreeable and gram. He is a gentleman and an honorable man is scholarly attainments are quite extensive. He resentative Republican."

George F. Elliott said: The nominations at Recheste mean that we are to have a Republican Governor. The era of good comradeship in the Republican ranks, beguing this city last winter, has extended over the Station this city last winter, has extended over the Station and the station of the stati

"He is personally the best man who could have been nominated," said George E. Murray, Master Workman of District Assembly No. 49, last night, speaking of the nomination of J. Sloat Passett for Governor Continuing, he said: "Mr. Fassett is a friend to working men. For a long time he succeeded in keeping the convicts in the Sinte Prison from competing with us. Then Governor Hill and his Assembly went working men. For a low state Prison from composing the convicts in the State Prison from composing with us. Then Governor Hill and his Assembly went to work and the competition was begin again. At the headquariers of District Assembly No. 49, at No. 52 Union Square, much indignation was expressed last night at a report published in a Democratic paper to the effect that the Knights of Labor were going to send out 100.000 circulars denouncing Mr. Fassett. No such circular would be sent out.

It is a well-known fact that a number of alleged labor leaders are enemies of Mr. Fassett because he has at times refused to father in the State Senate certain wild schemes and "crank" hills which they demanded that he should introduce. But the well wishers of organized labor and such leaders as Michael I. Fenton, of the Granite Cutters' Union; George W. Middledon, of the Amalgamated Society of Carpenter and Joiners; James E. Online, ex-Master Workman of District Assembly No. 49, and many other men who have held places of trust in lober organizations are not influenced by the exaggerated assertions of a Democratio press and are confident that in Mr. Fassett this state will find an upright and fearless Governor. will find an upright and fearless Governor.

INDORSING THE STATE TICKET. REPUBLICAN CLUBS ALREADY ENTHUSIASTIC FOR

ernor and State officers been so bright as they are this The resolutions commended the nomination of J. Sloat Fassett "as one calculated to place the party on the high ground of municipal and State reform. They were adopted unanimously. The meeting then adjourned to witness the raising of a banner, twelve by twenty-five feet, which was placed across the front of the building, bearing the names of the Republican candidates in large red letters and the districts from which they come in blue letters.

Among those present were William Kennedy, Charles W. Little, Thomas McGrane, Mortou H. C. Foster, C. H. Wheelock, William H. Merritt, C. A. Clark, John A. Vanderbilt, John Ellard, Edward Debois, Richard J. Garland, Peter H. McDonald and A. A. Vanderhoof. The members of the McKinley Republican Club of the XIth Assembly District met at their rooms at No. 107 West Thirty-fourth-st. last night and adopted a resolution in which they heartly indorsed and pledged their honor to support the candidates nominated by the convention. They also arraigned the Democratic leaders for driving the World's Fair from They also arraigned the this city, for preventing a just enumeration of the population of the State, for preventing a proper investigation of the canal robberies, and for foisting on the laboring classes a mongrel and insufficient ballot-reform bill. The president, James Corrigan, being at the conntion, E. S. Flow presided, Charles W. Anderson r secretary. Indied speeches were made by H. A. Matthews. Insign Adams, Albert R. Williams and H. R.

tnet, and wherever he goes in the campaign he will make hosts of friends. The whole ticket is first-class."

Appraiser Marvelle W. Cooper said: "I like the nominations exceedingly. There is no reason why Mr. Fassett should not be the next Governor and V.

The next meeting of the club will be held on Thurs-

REPUBLICANS SOLID FOR THE TICKET. SATISPACTION THEOUGHOUT THE STATE WITH

THE ROCHESTER NOMINATIONS. Hudson, N. Y., Sept. 10 (Special).-The ticket nom insted at Rochester yesterday meets the approval of all Republicans here, and has aroused great enthusiasm. A salute of fifty guns was fired upon its annour ce-

Kingston, N. Y., Sept. 10 (Special) .- The nomin of Fassett for Governor is received with enthusiasm by all Republicans here. They say that an unusually active campaign is now assured and they feel that success is certain. Leading Democrats admit that the ticket is exceptionally strong. Ex-Interstate Commerce Commissioner Schoonmaker says the nomination of Fassett is unquestionably a strong one.

Cortiand, N. Y., Sept. 10 (Special).-The result of the State Convention's work meets with the approval of all the Republicans throughout Cortland County. "The Daily Journal" here in its 'ssue this afternoon publishes interviews with a number of the leading Re-publishes interviews with a number of the leading Republicans, and they all express satisfaction and prodict success. There is no dissension as to the ticket, and it will be solidly supported.

Canisteo, N. Y., Sept. 10 (Special).—The news of the nomination of J. sloat Passeit for Governor was received with enthusiasm throughout Steulen County, and the leading Republicans express the opinion that it was the strongest nomination that could have been made. The full ticket gives general satisfaction.

ROCKLAND COUNTY READY FOR WORK. Rockland County Republicans are enthusiastic over Sloat Fassett for Governor. Mr. Fassett's mother belonged to one of the sub An everworked brain brings on headache, nervous-ness, billousness, constitution and dyspecial. Simmons Liver Regulator quickly relieves these troubles.

stantial Signt families which settled in the western part of the county and after whom the village of Sloatsburg was named. The nomination of General Ira M. Hedges, of Rockland, for State Treasurer, will also cause energetic work among the Republicans of the county in the campaign just opened. In fact, the entire ticket is considered by Rockland Republicans strong one without a weak spot in it. "Hur or Fassett and the whole ticket!" was the cry Rockland yesterday.

EVIDENCES OF REPUBLICAN HARMONY. MR. MILLER'S PRIENDS ENTHUSIASTIC FOR THE TICKET-HOW MR. FASSETT'S PACKING

UP WAS INTERRUPTED BY HIS SUDDEN NOMINATION.

Bochester, Sept. 10 (Special) .- A good many of the telegates to the Republican State Convention and everal of the candidates nominated for State offices renamed here to-day, resting from their severe labor of the last 'ew days. J. Sloat Fassett, the Republican candidate for Governor, was in the city until 4 o'clock this afternoon and then departed for Elmira with his wife, his mother and several personal friends. Mr. Fassett received a large number of congratulatory the hope that has been inspired in the hearts of all Republicans by his nomination. Elmira people say gives the strongest kind of evidence of his having been seized by the Republican party and compelled to be sett had about completed their plans to remove to New-York to live in consequence of his appointment as Collector. They had hired a flat there, and the moval to the metropolis. Mr. Fassett's front yard is reported to be covered with the boxes containing his Mr. Fassett will, of course, new take possession again Perhaps the boxes containing his furniture now had better be marked "Executive

Mr. Fassett will remain in Elmira to-morrow, but av then go to New-York to settle up his affairs as President Harrison will oblige him by an early acceptance of his resignation as Collector of New-York. It is reported here that Jacob M. Patterson and Robert Hilliard are both candidates for the office of Collector.

There will be a meeting of the new Republican State Committee in New-York in the coming week at the Fifth Avenue Hotel and a chairman will be elected General John N. Knapp, of Auburn, the chairman for three years past, has retired from the committee and a new man must be selected. Mr. Fassett will, of course, be consulted about this choice of a chairman of the committee, since this office will hold confidential relations to him. The members of the committee most frequently named for Francis Hendricks, of Syracuse, and John H. Camp, of Lyons. It is possible that Mr. Hendricks will be appointed Collector of New-York. This, of course, would incapacitate him from acting as chairman of the committee.

James W. Wadsworth, of Geneseo, one of the de feated candidates for Governor, is showing an excel-ient spirit. He has become a member of the State Committee for the purpose of working hard to bring bout Mr. Fassett's election. Mr. Wadsworth, it is said, will be made a member of the Executive Comnittee of the State Committee, so that he can do the

Mr. Fassett intends to make a speech-making tour from county to county throughout the State, presentobable that he will make his first speech in the city of New-York. He has accepted an invitation of the Republican League to make a speech there under its fine campaign speaker, and his familiarity with State legislation and the acts of the Democratic State officials the past six years will give him ample material to use in making these speeches. It will be an aggressive campaign on his part from the moment of his first One of the most encouraging features of the Republican campaign just beginning is the union and harmony that prevail among all Republicans. All shades of Republican opinion are expressed by the men who have been placed upon the State ticket. Two warm friends of Warner Miller have places of of the nomination for Lieutenant-Governor, and Arthur C. Wade that of the nomination for Controller. Mr. Vrooman for many years, as is well known, has seen an intimate personal friend of Mr. Miller. Upon Fuesday evening four other personal friends of Mr. Milcompany insisted upon his accepting a place upon the State should show their sincere purpose heartly to support Mr. Fassett for Governor by placing at his side one of REPUBLICAN CLUBS ALREADY ENTHUSIASTIC FOR THE CAMPAIGN.

An enthusiastic meeting of the Republican Cinb of the XXIIId Assembly District was held last night at No. 2,250 Third-ave. James B. Klishelmer presided; the XXIIId Assembly District was held last night at No. 2,250 Third-ave. James B. Klishelmer presided; the Thomas W. Robertson was secretary. Forty-three new members were elected and 234 applications for membership were received. Resolutions commending the platform and indorsing the nominations made by the Republican State Convention at Rochester were offered by William T. Ashman. Major William C. Reidy, in seconding the resolutions, spoke in enthusiastic terms of the ticket and of the brilliant prespects of Republicans state Convention at Rochester were offered by William T. Ashman. Major William C. Reidy, in seconding the resolutions, spoke in enthusiastic terms of the ticket and of the brilliant prespects of Republican state Committee, and the party are coming to the front and are taking hold of the campaign with unprecedented enhusiasm. Not for twelve years have the chances of electing a Governor and State officers been so bright as they are this committee this year in their prosecution of the campaign.

MR. VROOMAN WELCOMED HOME

Herkimer, N. Y., Sept. 10 (Special).—The return of John W. Vrooman from Fochester this evening was the occasion of a large public demonstration. Vrooman was greeted at the depot with bands and fireworks and the firing of cannon. He was escorted to the Palmer House, where he was received with speeches of welcome, to which he feelingly responded. G. W. Smith, the Democratic candidate for Congress four years ago, also spoke in hearty approval of the ticket nominated at Rochester, and predicted its election in November. Mr. Vrooman is popular in Herki-mer County and will receive a large vote here. The nomination of Mr. Fassett gives entire satisfaction and great confidence is felt in the election of the entire CONGRATULATIONS FROM SECRETARY TRACY. Washington, Sept. 10 (Special).-Secretary Tracy sent a telegram of congratulation to Mr. Fassett to-day The Secretary says that Mr. Fassett's nomination is the best that could possibly have been made; that it will harmonize all elements of the Republican party, and should insure a Republican victory this fall.

BETTER ABLE TO EILL HIMSELF.

Jacob Diestel shot Francis Birk on September 16, 1890, cause he had been intimate with Diestel's wife, ound was in the back, and Birk lay at the point of death weeks. He, however, sold the physicians that he de-ved being shot, and here Diestel no fil-will. Dirk was partly paralyzed at Helievue Hospital for months, but finally secovered his health. Last June he committed suicide at No. 164 East Twenty-sixth-st., by taking Parls green. Judge Cowing, in General Scistons, yesterday, discharged Diestel, as the principal witness against him was dead.

SELLING A PRIEST'S PERSONAL PROPERTY. The personal property of the Rev. Father Henry C. Macdowell, formerly paster of St. Agnes's Roman Catho-He Church in East Forty-third-st., who died more than : year ago, was sold at auction yesterday in Reilly's storage house, Forty-fourth-st. and Lexington-ave. The articles sold consisted of gifts, relies, souvenirs and personal property owned or at one time worn by the priest, and they were displayed on long tables for inspection by intending purchasers. Peter Bowe was the auctioneer, and F. H. Gerdes, a consin of Father McDowell, who is connected with the Pension Department in Washington, was the principal bidder. The articles sold included the cassocks, surplices, robes and beretts worn by the dead priest while in Reme and at the various coremonies and celebration; in which he figured during his life; and also an iver; snuffbox, said to be 300 years old. The receipts of the sale will be added to the fund to clear up the outstanding claims against the priest's estate

FLATBUSH MERCHANTS AT CONLY ISLAND.

The semi-annual dinner of the Mechanics and Traders' Exchange, of Flatbush, L. I., was held last right in the private dining-room of Piper's Hotel at Coney Island. Covers were laid for fifty. Among those present were Supervisor William J. Lynam, Tow Clerk Frank McGicason, Justices H. Bonekamp, J. Relly, William McMaher and E. Sweeny, Celonei C. Clark, John McElvery, president of the association; John C. Sawkins, Alfred E. Steurs, Everett E. Terry, ex-Judge Curran, B. C. Miller, Gilbert Hicks, James Huston, J. Rowe, A. P. Picher, Samuel F. Opp. John J. Sayder. Peter Bogart, E. E. Terry, P. Rooney, C. Bennett, A. C. Sayder, Albert Thomas, F. F. Webster, A. Authony, Joseph Harper, George Tay Litchfield Hills of Connecticut, only 3 1-2 hours by New-York Central. See time table.

DELIGHTED REPUBLICANS.

ENTHUSIASM OVER THE TICKET.

GENERAL RECOGNITION OF THE STRENGTH OF THE ROCHESTER NOMINATIONS, AND LIVELY INSPIRATION FOR THE

From The Albany Journal.

Character and capacity in public life are seldom united. The strictly honest and upright man who in political life maintains a conscience in healthy operation, through a series of years, is possessed of a moral fortitude that is not only rarer than montal brilliancy, but that marks its possessor as one cast in an heroic monid. Such a man is Mr. Fassett; and no argument of greater force with the plain people of the State could be devised than the admission of his opponents that he has always proved himself to be a high-minded man. At him the finger of soundal has never been pointed. His garments are free from stala. To the large and decisive element of independent voters in the politics of New-York, to whom ability of mind and integrity of purpose appeal and who are not bound by party ties, Mr. Fassett's nomination will be acceptable. In his record they have the assurance that the Governorship will be conducted with dignity and success. In him they recognize the trained states man who is fitted by public experience and personal accomplishments for fulfilling the duties of the office. With Republicans Mr. Fassett will command hearty support. He is a man of too broad a mind to recognize any faction or class within party lines. He is too intense a partisan to permit personal preference to interfere with what is for the best interests of the party.

The nomination of Mr. Fassett means an aggressive campaign from the beginning. He is not a holiday soldier. He will be found in the thick of the fight; and not until the going down of the sun on November 3 will he stop to consider the chances of victory or defeat. He is well calculated to enspirit the Republican hosts; he knows not fear nor weakness. Dashing, brilliant and vigorous, he will lead the party to a united and enthusiastic effort; and in the politics of New-York such an effort means victory.

SIGNIFICANT UNANIMITY. From The New-York Press.

From The New-York Press.

The manner of his nomination, with a practically unanimous vote on the first ballot, is proof that Mr. Fassett is the perty choice at a time when there is a demand for a vigorous campaign. He is capable of inaugurating and leading a speaking canvass to be participated in by the ablest orators of the party, which will rouse Republican enthusiasm and bring out Republican votes from one end of the Empire State to the other. He was pressed for the nomination by the friends of ex-Senator Miller. He is known as the friend of ex-Senator Flatt. He has the Administration with him, both by the confidence of President Harrison and the friendship of Secretary Blaine. Best of all, he will have the young men with him and a united party at his back. party at his back.

FREELY CHOSEN AND NOT PORCED. From The Philadelphia Press.

The New-York Republicans have nominated a ticket composed of clean, able, aggressive Republicans. The choice of Mr. Fassett for Governor appears to have been the result of a spontaneous expression of opinion by the designates, and not of any attempt to force his name on the convention.

HILL AND TANMANY IN A PANIC. From The New-York Mail and Express.

From The New-York Mail and Express.

The very name of Fassett terrorizes the Hill Democracy, and throws Tammany into convulsions of wild alarm. For more than eight years he has been marching like a knight of old, mailed in the impenetrable armor of his own unfailing integrity and invincible courage, ransacking every corner of the State cursed by Democratic domination, and dragging forth into the daylight of publicity every guilty secret and every trembling culprit until the Democrats, were forced to acknowledge their disgraceful discomiture at the hands of our brilliant and patriotic young leader.

From The Brooklyn Times.

From The Brooklyn Times.

Of course it will be said that the nomination engineered by Platt, and that Fassett is Platt's me We don't propose to deny the fact. Mr. Platt, in estimation, has played the shrewdest game in political few months that has be played in the State for many years and he has been out ahead. But what of it? The game was played fairly; the convention was as 1000, representative and unpacked a convention as was ever held in the State, and when it declared by almost six to one in favor of Mr. Platt's candidate there is nothing more to be said. Every loyal Republican is beand to accept the fairly expressed will of the malority, and when it, out of seven Republicans in the State accept Mr. Platt's leadership, the minority But, apari ave no cause for complaint. Fut, apart from the uestlon of Platt or anti-Platt, it cannot be denied that be candidate who was yesterday the unanimous choice of the convention is a splendid candidate and that no nan better equipped for the office could be found he State. If Mr. Platt should never do worse than to two the party such a standard-bearer we would all be

NOMINATIONS THAT "MEAN BUSINESS." From The Brooklyn Citizen (Dem.)

From The Brooklyn Citizen (Dem.)

This, as was intimated yesterday, is to be looked upon as a fighting ticket, and is made up for that very purpose. It is, in a political and partisan senso, a good ticket: for attention has been paid in its construction to the feelings of localities that are worthy of consideration. In this respect Kings County and the big city of Brooklyn have been fairly consulted by the nomination of existate Senator Eugene F. O'Connor, of this city, for Secretary of State; and in justice to him it remains to be said that Democrats of Brooklyn, as well as Republicans, regard him as an honorable and a capable gentleman.

lyn, as well as Republicans, regard film as an holoable and a capable gentleman.

Nothing, in fact, is to be said against the capacity or the personal character of any one of the nominees of the Rochester convention, all of whom seem to have been selected with the idea that a good, clean ticket was the one thing on which they could hang a hope of success. Some may think that the nomination of Fassett for Governor is in the nature of a mistake, because on account of the dissension among Democrats it is fair to suppose that the doubtful element could be appealed to more successfully for a man who is less appealed to more successfully for a man who is less preminent or at least less partisan in reputation than he.

There may be something in that; but, on the other hand, Passett comes from Governor Hill's own district, and there may be a certain shrewdness in thus appealing to the pride of Cheming County and the adjoining ones of Alicgany and Steuben; and in a purely personal campaign these things, small as they may seem to non-politicians, count for a great deal among those who play politics day and night.

CRUSHED IN A "DUMMY" ELEVATOR.

Charles Pfenning, thirty years old, an employe in Tatham & Co.'s shot and lead-pipe factory at No. 82 Beekman-st., was killed at 8 o'clock last night in the "dummy" used for hoisting pig lead to the top of the shot tower. The small elevator, or "dummy," as it is called, was intended only for hoisting lead to the top of the tower, which is 240 feet high.

Plenning was directed to go to the top of the tower to bank the fire. All the employes have been warned not to ride in the dummy, but Pfenning disregarded this warning, and rode up in the small elevator. It went up quickly, and when it reached the top of the tower Pfenning did not pull the stop-rope. He was jammed against the timber and wheels in the tower with great force. His shoulders were broken, and his chest was dummy was at the top of the tower, and, failing to get any reply to his repeated calls, ran up to the top of the tower, where he found Pfenning's terribly mutilated Policeman James McQueid sent for Coroner Conw who gave a permit for the removal of the body Moran's undertaking rooms in Madison-st.

NAVAL VETERANS MEET. The regular monthly meeting of the Farragut Naval Veteran Association was held last evening on the quarter-deck" in Essex Market. As requested by the National Association of Naval Veterans of the United States, the following shipmates were elected to fill these offices: One aid for the staff of the Rear Admiral, William Arnold; for the Executive Committee, James Holland; one member for the World's Columbian Committee of Naval Veterans, F. H. Grove; one alternate, William Beach. After George W. Brower had been promoted from Commander to Captain of the post, a resolution was passed which de harred any one from becoming a member of the post who could not show an honorable discharge after who could not show an honorable of serving in the Navy from 1861 to 1865.

TWO SUICIDES AT NIAGARA FALLS.

Niagara Falls, Sept. 10 (Special) .- A man committed nicide by going over the American Falls from Luna Island about 1.30 o'clock this morning. About three hours later a woman ended her life by jumping from Prospect Point, being carried over the American Falls. Nothing is known about the identity of either of them yet. The man was seen to float down the ce men who stood on Luna Island. They called

FLINT'S FINE FURNITURE FALL OUTFITS

Are being put aside in our warerooms. It is well to select now when the assortment is at its best otherwise you might find a blue ticket on "Just the Thing," and

FINE FURNITURE

Cannot be Made Quickly.

"BUY OF THE MAKER."

GEO. C. FLINT CO. 104, 106, 108 West 14th Street.

IMPERIAL GRANUM.-There is one dietetic preparation that goes on in the even tenor of its way, always a popular food when no other can be, or will be, retained on the physician can find to assist him in carrying through his patient to recovery. I have found it of inestimable value in the later stages of Prithinia, Gastritia, Gastrie Cotarrh, Dyspepsia and Dysentery. It digests easily, and I have never known it to be rejected if properly prepared, given in small quantities and at frequent intervals. The great care used in its manufacture will lead the physician to expect the same product all the time, and we can assure him that he will never be disappointed, as we have fully tested it in our extended experience .- W. C. Was to him and he replied: "I am going over the falls." Many people saw the woman's suicide, for it an hour when the park was crowded. R. T. Heis of Philadelphia, jumped into the water from the point and seized her. They were not a dozen feet from the edge of the fall. She struck at him fercely and fought him off, and was then swept over the edge, Mr. Hein regained the shore with difficulty.

Sold by Druggists Shipping Depot, JOHN CARLE & SONS, New-York

RAILROADS IN THE NORTH WOODS.

DR. WEBB'S ROAD REORGANIZED-A REPORT FROM THE FOREST COMMISSIONER. Albany, Sept. 10 .- The St. Lawrence and Adjunction

Railroad Company filed a certificate of incorporation with the Secretary of State this afternoon. The capttal stock is $3,500,000, and the company will operate a standard-gauge railroad from a point at or near the village of Remsen, in Oneida County, northerly to the village of Malone, in Franklin County, which two points will be its terminals. Branch roads will run from the main line to the village of Saranac, Franklin County, and to Cranberry Lake, St. Lawrence County, and to such other necessary places as shall hereafter be determined by the directors. The road will be about 175 miles long, and will be in part in the counties of Oneida, Lewis, Herkimer, Hamilton, St. Lawrence, Essex and Franklin. The stock will be divided into 35,000 shares. The company's principal office will be in New-York City. The directors are J. K. Taylor, Charles R. Wager, Daniel B. Brown, Thomas P. Conneff, C. E. Taylor, Charles R. Lincoln Frank G. Smith, George W. Van Loon and Morgan

Wilson, all of New-York City.

The Herkimer, Newport and Poland Exter way Company was also incorporated, with the same board of directors and a capital stock of $500,000. The company will operate a standard-gauge line from the point of intersection with the Herkimer, Newport and Poland Narrow Gauge Railway, at or near the village of Poland, in Herkimer County, northerly to the village of Remsen, in Onelda County, with a branch running from the main line at the village of Prospect, in Oncida County, to a point at or near the village or town of Northwood, in Herkimer County. The total ength of the road will be twenty miles.

The Malone and St. Lawrence Railroad Company was also incorporated at the same time, with use same board of directors. The capital stock is $24,000, and the company will operate a standard gauge rail-road from a point at or near the village of Malone, in Franklin County, northerly to a point in the town of Burke, in Franklin County, a distance of about twelve miles.

The attorney for the roads explained that the three companies were to take the place of Dr. Webby was also incorporated at the same time, with the

The attorney for the roads explained that the three companies were to take the piace of Dr. Webb's Adirondack and St. Lawrence Road for the purpose of simplifying matters and expediting the building of the road. The old company operated under two state laws, and it was thought best to have the entire organization under the new law, which differs considerably from the old one. The attorney also said that the company would not attempt to enter upon any land until the State had ceased to claim title to it.

William F. Fox, Warden of the state Forest Commission, has sent in a special report from the North Woods, under date of September 8, in which he says? While at the State hatchery the Superialendant re-was not in a position to make any division, as he had given a refusal of his interest to Dr. W. S. Webb, of the Adirondack and St. Lawrence Railroad." Later Colonel Fox learned that Dr. Webb had purchased

THEY FOUND HER DRAD IN A CHAIR.

Margaret C. Fick, a widow, forty-eight years old, of No. 343 East Eightleth-st., was found dead in her room yesterday by Thomas J. Smith, a policeman of the East Eighty-eighth-st. station. Mrs. Fick was first missed on Tuesday, when a friend called at her flat and found the doors locked.

Mrs. Fick's friend, William Geppert, of No. 166 Lynch-st., Brooklyn, called at her flat again on Wednesday, and again found the doors locked. Geppert called again yesterday, and finding the doors closed he went to the East Eighty-eighth-st police station, and requested that a policeman be sent to Mrs. Fick's apartments. Policeman Smith entered Mrs. Fick's room by means of the fire-escape. He saw Mrs. Fick sitting in a chair dead, with her hands crossed in her lap. Near her, on a mantelplece, was found a half-filled four-ounce bottle of carbolic acid. Under the dead woman's hands was found a revolver. Its five chambers were loaded.

A note, written in German, was found in the room in which Mrs. Fick said she wished to join her husband and not trouble her friend, Mr. Geppert, who has aided her since her husband died, five years ago.

THE REYSTONE BANK EXAMINATION STOPPED. Philadelphia, Sept. 10.-The expert examination of the Keystone Bank books has been discontinued, the 85,000 appropriated by Congress for making special examinations of National banks throughout the country having been used up. Mr. Fannce, the expert, said to-day that it was unfortunate that their work had to cease just at this time, as they had reached a highly interesting and important point in their examination.

THE WEATHER REPORT.

FORECAST UNTIL 8 P. M. FRIDAY. Washington, Sept. 10 .- For New-England, fair; slightly armer; southerly winds. For Eastern New-York, fair; southerly winds; warmer in the southern part; stationary temperature in the north-For Eastern Pennsylvania, fair; warmer in the western

For New-Jersey, Delaware and Maryland, fair; slightly warmer; southerly winds; rains in Maryland Saturday. Virginia, fair; warmer, except on the coast; rein Saturday.

For North Carolina, showers in the southwestern part. For South Carolina, Georgia and Fiorida, threatening weather and rain. For Alabama and Mississippi, local rains; warmer to Northwestern Alabama and Southeastern Mississippi. For Louisiana, showers in the southeast; warmer.

For Eastern Texas, fair. For Arkaesas, warner; local rains in southeast. For Tennessee, local rains.

For Kentucky, generally fair; warmer in the eastern part; rain on Saturday. For Western New-York, Western Pennsylvania and

West Virginia, slightly warmer and fair; showers Satur-For Kansas, warmer; generally fair. For Colorado, light local showers; slightly cooler

TRIBUNE LOCAL OBSERVATIONS.

TM 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 12 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 5 10 11

In the diagram a continuous line shows the barometer functuations yesterday, as observed at the United States Signal Service Station at the city. The dashes indicate the temperature noted at Perry's Pharmacy, Sun Building. Tribune Office, Sept. 11, 1 a. m .- Clear weather with Tribane Office, Sept. 1, 1 a. in.—Creat are an a dry air prevailed yesterday. The wind got around into the south again, but with not enough strength to bring in any ocean dampness. The temperature ranged between 57 and 75 degrees, the average (64%) being 2½ lower than on the corresponding day last year, and 3% higher than on Wednesday.

In and near this city to-day there will preceive a lightly warness, fair weather.